

Naples in Eighteenth-Century Europe

The Finnish Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

4–5 September 2015

The House of Sciences and Letters (Kirkkokatu 6, Helsinki, Room 505)

The conference is open to the public with no participation fee.

Registration (preferably by August 20, 2015) by email: info-1700@helsinki.fi

Friday, 4 September

10.15 a.m. Opening Words

10.20 a.m. Introduction: Henrik Knif (Åbo Akademi University), Approaching Naples in the Eighteenth Century

11.00 a.m. Session I: Eighteenth-Century Perspectives on Ancient Campania

Anne-Marie Leander-Touati (University of Lund), Pompeii Reception in Late Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century Sweden

Antero Tammisto (University of Helsinki), Pompeii in Eighteenth-Century Finland

Janne Tunturi (University of Turku), Ancients, Moderns, Savages: Campania in Late Eighteenth-Century Historical Thought

1.00 p.m. Lunch Break

2.15 p.m. Session II: Cultural Politics and Musical Diplomacy

Mélanie Traversier (University of Lille 3/Institut Universitaire de France), Fatal Attraction: How the Bourbons Worked for the Musical Supremacy of Naples in the Eighteenth Century

Charlotta Wolff (University of Helsinki), Naples in Stockholm: The Influence of Neapolitan Music and Theatre on the Northern European Scene

4.00 p.m. Drinks & Snacks

6.00 p.m. Concert: Follia d'Ammore – Singing and Playing from Naples in the Baroque Period

Saturday, 5 September

10.15 a.m. Keynote: John Robertson (University of Cambridge), What and When Was the Neapolitan Enlightenment?

11.00 a.m. Coffee Break

11.30 a.m. Session III: Neapolitan Philosophy and Political Thought

Adriana Luna-Fabritius (University of Helsinki), Visions of Sociability in Early Neapolitan Enlightenment.

Koen Stapelbroek (University of Helsinki), The Liberty of Commerce: Neapolitan Trade Institutions and Eighteenth-Century Political Economy

1.00 p.m. Lunch Break

2.15 p.m. Keynote: Anna Maria Rao (University of Naples Federico II), Eighteenth-Century Naples: A European Capital of Culture?

3.00 p.m. Panel Discussion

3.45 p.m. Closing